

Setting the New Standard in High End Audio & Video...The AV8003 and MM8003.

Scheduled to ship in June, the AV8003 and MM8003 highlight our new direction in terms of technology and esthetics. The clean logo free chassis, derived directly from our Reference series product, sets the AV/MM apart from everything else on the market and ground breaking technology, such as a Digital Media Player for streaming Audio and Video, will have your most discriminating customers taking notice. We have presold more than half of the initial incoming shipments of these models and orders will be processed on a first come, first serve basis.
